

SIX-YEAR-OLD CROOK A PUBLIC PROBLEM IN HIS HOME TOWN

Newspaper in Racine, Wis.,
Raising a Fund to Send Bad
Boy Far Away.

RACINE, Wis., Sept. 19.—Richard Tucklowitz, Racine's six-year-old bandit and all around boy "bad man," is to be exiled from his home town. He boasts of a record of more than thirty thefts and thirty minor crimes.

Following his depredations of last Sunday, when he robbed two automobiles of watches, and tried to rob the home of Chief of Police Henry C. Baker, the authorities have decided to send him away. He will probably be taken to a St. Louis school for abnormal children.

A local newspaper has started to raise $700 to pay his expenses at the school for a year. More than $100 has already been pledged, much of it by the boy's victims. The lad's parents, who confess their inability to manage him, have given their consent to the exile plan.

Efforts have been made to place the boy in the Waukesha Industrial School and the Sparta Home for Dependent Children, but both have refused to take him because of his youth.

A Derby Winner For the Man with $2 to Spend For His New Fall Hat

It's this way: The factory turned out these Hats a little faster than the well-known hatter for whom they were intended could sell them at $3.

So he finished them up for us, identical in every respect save the sweatband, to sell for a dollar less—60¢ of them.

Perfect. In ten new blocks, with fine silk trimmings and bow at back or side.

Also at the same price, $2, and the same savings, a group of handsome Soft Hats, in new Autumn styles and colors.

These Men's Shirts at 95c Are Even Better Than We Thought

The samples were handsome enough—but the entire collection of 1,500 Shirts is even more impressive in its fine new designs, its splendid materials and excellent making and laundering.

Every Shirt in the lot newly made, by a fine maker, for Autumn business. $1.50 is the lowest regular price of any Shirt in the gathering. All perfect, of course.

Plain negligee, attached cuffs, all sizes—95c.

The New Fall Neckwear
Is here in great variety. The popular Velvet Scarfs, 50c; some very handsome Irish poplin Four-in-lands, in plain colors, unusual at $1, and many others of interest to the man who dresses well.

Ultra and Smart! IMPORTED COATS of Peau de Suede for Women, $25 and $29.50

This soft, leather-like fabric—Peau de Suede—is quite the most distinctive coat material of the season. And, as it can only be successfully made in a good quality, it is rather expensive. Therefore, you would imagine these Coats to be more costly, for they are carefully tailored, besides being made of this excellent fabric. But they are not, for the reason that we are acquainted with the European market and know just where to have them made—well made, at a moderate price.

The $25 model has a clever velvet collar that may be worn with long tabs or closed to form a cravat collar. And you will see in the sketch that it has curiously curved buttonholes.

A unique belt distinguishes the $29.50 style. The sleeves of this Coat have the Raglan effect in front and form a shoulder yoke in the back. The Coats are in these stunning colors—

Leather Green	Wine Tan	Plum Taupe	Navy Also Black

Coats of Imported "Radyne" Exclusive at $19.50 and $25

The collection that arrived a fortnight ago was exhausted in a little while, but here is another! The $19.50 style is knee length and is fashioned in a severely tailored way, with wide belt; while the $25 model is in a good-looking five-eighths length. Blue, green and rose. Third Floor

Two Paris Dress Fabrics Unusual at $2.50 a Yard

This is a two-fold bit of good news, and the same importer who had too much of the goods on his hands is responsible for both sides of it. It required our buying his whole surplus to secure the low price:

One fabric is a very striking Wool Brocade in a variety of Autumn colorings as well as navy blue and black.

The other is a two-toned or Iridescent Velour in uncut velvet effect, in such good combinations as black-and-green, black-and-torquoise, black-and-white, blue-and-red and gray-and-rose.

Both are 46-in. wide, and tomorrow specially priced at $2.50 a yard. Second Floor

Before the Storm Signals Are Flying—

It's a good idea to inspect your umbrella rack. Umbrellas have an elusive way with them if not watched carefully. For replacing the lost ones, here's a fine offering of

The Fall Suits at $19.50

"That's some Suit for $19.50!" said our clothing expert in showing this excellent group to the advertiser. And indeed it is. Materials that would do credit to $30 suits (and are frequently found in them)—plain blacks, blue chevrons, plain grays, pin stripes, some mixtures. Tailoring of the kind that looks well at first and stays that way. Soft roll or straight lapels. Suits, in short, that are far better than their price indicates—we'll let you determine for yourself just how much. Fourth Floor

The Clever Ideas of Georgette and Lewis Are Combined in This New Bonnet with the Bridle Strap—at $12.75

Although this coquettish little Hat is an exclusive GIMBEL mode we are perfectly willing to admit that it was inspired by the two famous Paris modistes—Georgette and Lewis.

In combining their ideas we think that we have designed the perfect model in this particular kind of Hat that is now so popular.

Just in purple or black velvet, because it is most effective in these tones. Of course, it is relieved with a crushed pink rose.

GIMBEL Specialized $8.75, $10 and $14.75 Hats Are Typical of Paris

For they are either copies or adaptations of costly—not commonplace—Paris models. Besides they are nearly all made of fine imported materials. Several hundred new Hats will be sent down from our workrooms to-night for tomorrow's display.

Millinery for Young Girls—$1.75 to $10

New Tam o'Shanter hats that are artistically corded and draped! Quaint and picturesque Dress Hats, Tailored Hats for knock-about wear. Indeed, a larger selection of styles than you will find in any one Salon in New York.
